Rec Night Slated In Cook Gym Tonite

Bermudas, capris, and sweatshirts will be the dress for tonight's rec night in the gym at Santa Ana College.

Freshman class president Andy Kormos and his executive board have gone all out in preparing tonight's festivity and feel it will be outstanding.

Bill of Rights Assembly Set December 10

Each of the ten amendments will be enacted at the Bill of Rights assembly to be held Thursday, December 10, at 11:00.

Walt Whitman's "I Am An American" will be the prologue for the assembly. Ten clubs will participate with each club taking one amendment. They will be presented as a series of silhouettes with a narrator.

This type of assembly was decided upon at a meeting of the advisers for the Bill of Rights Week.

Members of the adviser's committee are John "Sky" Dunlap, Agness Todd Miller, Thomas Trawick, Frances Egge, Lota Blythe, David Haftman, Ernest Crain, Edmund Hallahan, Peter Raven and William Corser.

As part of the observance of Bill of Rights Week, December 9-15, the speech department is sending people around to the various classes to speak on the famous document.

Don Bissonnette, associated men student president and chairman of the SAC observation, has made extensive plans for the week.

Don Bissonnette
... heads Bill of Rights

He and Linda Maxwell presented a framed copy of the Bill of Rights for the lobby of the Pacific Telephone Company. A picture of the presentation will be run in TeleDigest, the company magazine.

Bissonnette stated that he needs sound equipment, microphones and amplifiers, for the work of his committee. Those who wish to participate in any way are asked to offer their services at the special office located in the counseling building.

AWS, AMS Plan Benefit Breakfast

Santa Ana College's Associated Men Students and Associated Women Students are sponsoring a pancake breakfast to be held Sunday morning, December 6.

Linda Bright and Don Bissonnette, AWS and AMS presidents, report that all proceeds from the event will go to the Tustin Boy's Club.

Santa Ana Memorial Park, Flower Street and St. Gertrudes Place, will be the site of the co-sponsored money raising activity.

This freshman sponsored event is not the first rec-night of the year but Andy says "it will be one the students of Santa Ana will not soon forget." Ping-pong, volleyball, dancing, and refreshments will all be offered in a deserted island atmosphere.

With the exchange of student body ticket number 12, and 25 cents, Dons will be admitted, to Rec-night. Guest tickets should be obtained before the gala affair gets under way from the Dean's office. If the tickets are acquired at the door, the price is 50 cents.

"Ship-Rec Night" will run from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. Prexy Kormos said, "If time and effort are any indication of the success of a project, tonight's activity should be tremendous. I sincerely hope that everyone attends."

College Choirs Present Special Christmas Show

Special Christmas music will be presented by the Santa Ana College Music Department Dec. 1 and 15 at the Junior Ebell Club of Anaheim and Santa Ana Ebell Club.

Under the direction of James Vail, a combination of secular and sacred compositions will be presented by the choir members.

Sopranos of the women's ensemble of the college choir are Louise Di Lallo, Margaret Busch, Carol Dunbar, and Judith Miller.

Altos include Maureen Pate, Shari Lehman, Marth Neumeyer, Janie Gibbs.

Members of the male quartet are Ron Scheel, Ralph Choi, Charles Dickey and Joe Francis.

Accompanist for the small vocal groups of the choir is Martha Thornton.

The choir has also been asked to participate as one of the caroling groups at Bullock's during the holiday season.

A few members of the SAC choir will participate as carol singers in a production written by Miss Susan Brenner Dec. 11-12.

The choir will present a Christmas assembly for the college students Dec. 17 in Phillips Hall.

Freshmen To Be In 'New Look' Of Del Ano

Carol Smith, editor of Del Ano, issued a call today to all freshmen students interested in having their picture in the "New Look" section of the 1960 Del Ano.

Students are asked to leave their name and telephone number in a specially designated box in room B-3, publications wing. This section is taking the place of the traditional freshman section.

The 1960 Del Ano is scheduled to have a total of 176 pages, largest in the history of the school. A total of 20 pages have already been completed, according to Miss Smith.

Del Ano will once again be published by the Mirro-Graphic Yearbook Company of Glendale. The cover, already completed, is by Smith and Co.

Miss Smith is assisted on the book by Associate Editor Willie Sprague; Copy Editor Sue Schlice; Art and Layout Editor John Glaspie; and photographer John Servis, and staff of 23.

"Although we are limited financially we still hope to publish a prize-winning book," concluded Miss Smith.

Formal Dance Planned For Long Beach Hotel

Breaking tradition, this year's holiday formal will be held in the Pageant Room of the Wilton Hotel in Long Beach.

"Christmas Interlude" has been chosen as the theme for the December 4 event. A musical group employed by the hotel, the Bob Calloway Trio, will play for the evening.

The Pageant Room, a room with three glass walls overlooking the Pacific Ocean and Rainbow Pier, has been rented for the occasion by the social committee headed by Adith Munro.

Miss Munro stated that one of the advantages of having the dance in Long Beach, rather than the student union, was that the city has many good restaurants in which to dine prior to the dance.

Tickets for the event will cost $3.00, which is only $1.00 more than it would cost to have the dance on campus. The tickets for the dance will be in the form of bid books and will contain a map of the area showing how to get to the hotel. The dance will begin at 9:00 p.m.

A special invitation for the dance is being issued to the faculty and married couples on campus. Tickets will be available from student council members, the social committee, and the Don bookstore. During the last week before the dance tickets will also be sold from a booth in the student union.

Dress for the event is suits or dinner jackets for the men and short or long formals for the women.

Miss Munro's committee has made extensive plans for the decorations for the dance.

Decorating will be done in a silver, white and blue motif. Blue lighting will be used. Tumbleweed sprayed white and covered with silver and blue glitter will be hung around the room. Four pillars in the middle of the room will be decorated with blue and silver netting from which royal blue Christmas balls will be hung.

Mistletoe and holly will also be used. The bottoms of the windows will be sprayed with artificial snow to create a wintry effect.

Thirty round tables seating 10 people each are located around the room. Each table will have a centerpiece composed of silver and blue pinecones, angel hair and royal blue balls. Individual souvenirs of the dance will be given to each couple attending. The room has a large bandstand area.

Miss Munro said that the whole effect will be "very romantic."

Susan Brenner Stages Second Artist Series December 1

Production is underway for the presentation of "Rhythmic Moods in Song," to be presented Tuesday, Dec. 1 in Phillips Hall at 8:30.

Miss Susan Brenner, producer for the show, is a former SAC student. Singing in 12 different languages, Miss Brenner is also noted for her ability to sing mezzo-soprano in a three octave range.

From Brahms

The production will include music from Brahms, Falla, Ravel, Gershwin, Stell, Burleigh, and Youman.

Recent New York arrival, Dominic Laruccia, will manipulate his dancing fingers in a flute solo. George Richter has been selected as the drummer for the performance. He was recently a member of the Orange County Symphony.

A previous entertainer in the Artist's Series, Robert Sheffer, will be the featured guitarist for the evening.

Soloists

Betty Stockwell, Edna Ahorn, and Helen Fackner will entertain with piano solos.

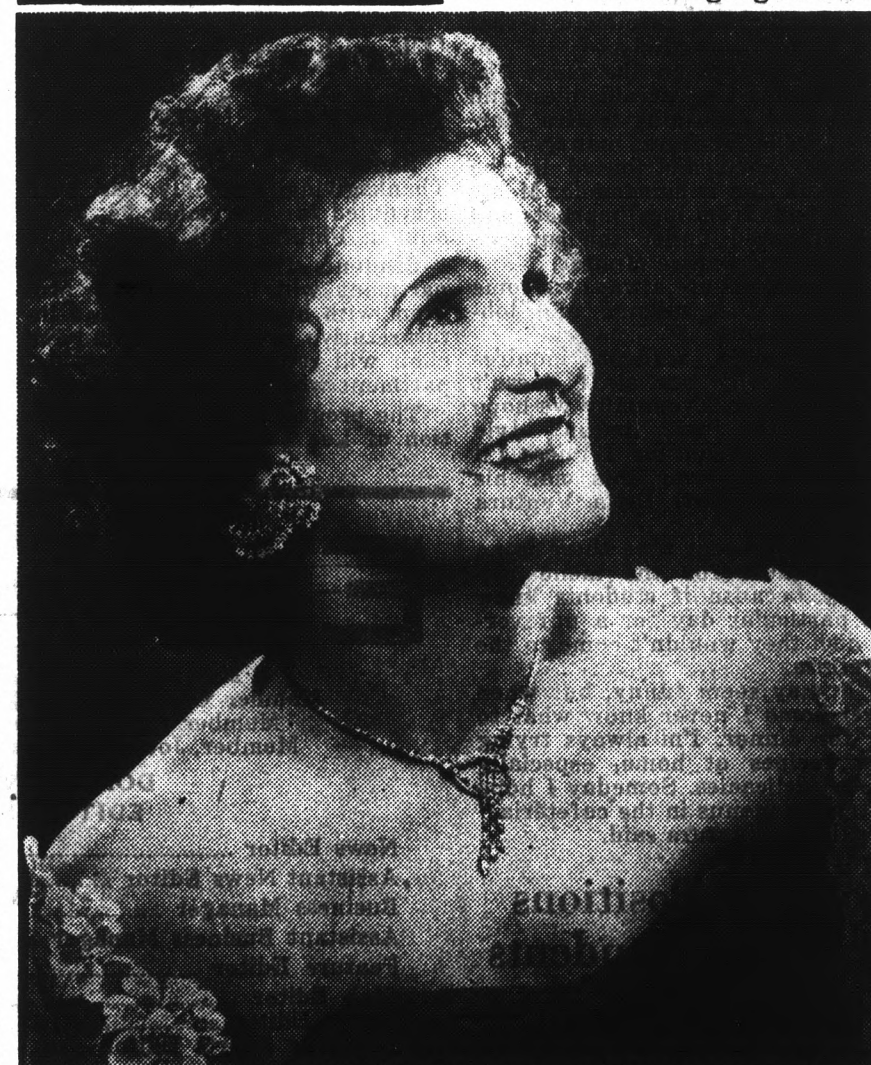

Appearing with serious presentations, Conrad Shultz of Santa Ana will perform. He is noted for his dramatic tenor voice.

Other singers include Helena Mawson, Santa Ana, who is a leading contralto; Kenneth Akin, Santa Ana, a former conductor of the Santa Ana Cantendo Club and musical director of First Christian Church of Santa Ana, will offer his talents at the program.

Tenor Guest

Presently a music instructor for Fremont Jr. High School in Anaheim, Marvin Fennema, a fine lyric tenor, is also a guest soloist of the musical variety production. Fennema is also the tenor soloist for the First Methodist church in Santa Ana.

The second of four programs included in the Artist's Series at Santa Ana College, the programs are sponsored by the Associated Students.

MISS SUSAN BRENNER (above) is producing the second Artist Series presentation "Rhythmic Moods in Song." Miss Brenner is a former student of SAC. She sings in 12 different languages and is noted for her ability to sing mezzo-soprano in a three octave range.

Creative Students Prepare Ceramic, Holiday Projects

By Barbara Berman

Ceramics students under the direction of Mr. Peter Raven are having fits about their projects!

To understand the plight of these artisans, one must realize that a fit is merely a common expression usually referring to the relation or affinity of the glaze and clay body.

PAINSTAKING PROJECT — Ceramics students of Mr. Peter Raven like Virginia Taylor (above) are engaged in creative work which will be presented at a forthcoming display on campus. The projects will include bird, fish, and animal models.

Spaghetti, Cream Pies Head Cafeteria Best Seller List

It's a "mad guess in the dark" when the college cafeteria staff tries to decide how many Dons will consume the daily delicacies.

Approximately 100 students are served full meals each day not counting the hundreds which just order soda pop, sandwiches, and desserts that are bought separately.

Campus Clubs

By Barbara Derdzinska

MUSIC CLUB

Heading the list of new officers for the Music Club is Chuck Dickey, president. Other officers are Ron Fleenor, vice president; Maureen Pate, secretary; and Jane Gibbs, treasurer. Club adviser is James Vail.

Many musical shows and concerts have been attended by the members as a group. Several social events have been held and more are planned.

NEWMAN CLUB

Due to ineligibility of its president there has been a shift in the officers of the Newman Club. New president is Ron Johnson while Stephanie Turnbaugh is the new vice president.

Sixteen members of the club attended the premiere of the picture "The Proper Type" starring Tom Laughlin at the Academy Theatre last Monday in Hollywood.

CIRCLE K

A student directory sponsored by Circle K as a service to the Associated Students is currently being sold at the Don bookstore. Price for the booklet, which lists the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all the students, is 35 cents.

At the present time there is no set schedule for the menu primarily because if students knew the particular day for a unfavorable dish they wouldn't come to the cafeteria.

"It may seem funny, but when I get home I never know what to fix for dinner. I'm always trying new recipes at home, especially Italian delicacies. Someday I hope to try the menus in the cafeteria," Mrs. Della Ventura said.

Job seekers may find positions open by seeing Ernest Crain in the SAC Placement Office located in the main administration building.

Money for Christmas is a welcome sight for most students whether it be earned or received as a gift.

Each of Raven's classes offers to interested art students facilities which will let the creative person prove his skill.

Another holiday craft project planned for the class is Christmas ornament designing.

Each of Raven's classes offers to interested art students facilities which will let the creative person prove his skill.

Four SAC ceramic students are experiencing the detailed art of making ceramics as they prepare for a forthcoming display to be presented on the campus.

Class Members

Members of Raven's class who are engaged in molding birds, fish, and animals are Virginia Taylor, Helen Reeves, Joyce Spyksma, and Jon Diegel.

Perhaps one of the busiest art classes at the present time is the advertising design section. The students, also under the direction of Raven, spend numerous hours drawing posters for non-political campus events.

Biggest Project

The biggest project of this year's class is the construction of El Don, 12 foot mascot to be used at all games. Even non-registered students are helping build the paper mache structure.

"Do the students realize this is the first time since 1915 that SAC has owned a mascot of this type?" Raven inquired.

The advertising class is relatively new and introduces the arts of lettering and advertising illustration, brush techniques with basic alphabets, layout, drawing and rendering of designs for commercial purposes, principal processes of reproduction, book and magazine illustration, brochures, direct mail and package design to the interested art student.

Holiday Skill

Another phase of creative work is being done by Raven's crafts class. With the advent of the holiday season, the students are preparing Christmas cards with the use of block printing.

To accomplish the art of block printing, the students must first design engraved wooden blocks, cover the presses with ink, and delicately transfer the design to the blank card.

Another holiday craft project planned for the class is Christmas ornament designing.

Each of Raven's classes offers to interested art students facilities which will let the creative person prove his skill.

Thanksgiving Show Set For Nov. 24

Santa Ana College's annual Thanksgiving assembly has been scheduled for November 24, at 11 a.m. in Phillips Hall.

Students from the speech department will highlight the program with humorous skits and interpretative presentations and the choir will represent the music department with various selections.

The program is under the direction of Lee Ford.

No Longer JC

Ever had your name misspelled or mispronounced? Kind of annoying isn't it?

Which brings to mind that our school is Santa Ana College, not Santa Ana JUNIOR College. Yes, just plain, simple, Santa Ana College.

True, we are a two year community college and are governed by the Santa Ana Junior College District. But for the past dozen years the school has been officially Santa Ana College.

The term Junior has been rapidly disappearing from the two year college scene. For example it's Orange Coast College, Pasadena City College, Long Beach City College and seven Los Angeles two year schools have dropped the term Junior.

Remember, we don't attend JC, it's SAC. D.H.A.

What Alma Mater?

All schools have their Alma Mater and almost all schools honor it.

What's wrong with ours?

Last year Ted Nichols wrote a new Alma Mater for Santa Ana College which was officially accepted by the Student Council. Who knows it?

Let's get the ball rolling to give the Alma Mater its proper place in school. How about at games, assemblies, and other big events in which the Alma Mater would be fitting and proper? D.H.A.

Efficient Secretary Helps Promote Important Bill of Rights Observance

Hard at work planning Bill of Rights Week is pretty Linda Maxwell, who is serving as secretary for the committee.

"Our entire group is working diligently to bring out enthusiasm in the students so they will participate and be active in the annual week. We are planning an assembly for all students and hope interest in the event will be stimulated," Linda said.

European Trip Awaits Ambitious SAC Freshmen

Andy Kormos and Mike Grannis, SAC freshmen, are planning a three month trip to Europe for the summer of 1960.

"We are going to make the complete European tour on bicycle, and we are going to have fun!" replied Andy.

"I have written," he continued "and am going to write approximately 40 letters so that we will have good contacts with youth hostels and with various European countries."

Their main objective in venturing on the trip is to gain knowledge of the European Culture.

"By viewing the culture, it will help us out with our history and law majors," added Grannis.

Some of the countries that the two enthusiasts intend to see include France, Germany, Italy, England, and Switzerland. "We have estimated the cost of the trip to be approximately $400 with the contacts of 30 people that I know over there," replied Andy.

"If anyone wants to help sponsor some of the events or all of it, we will be more than happy to recognize you," replied Mike.

LINDA MAXWELL
... eyes teaching goal

Linda experienced her time of frustration recently when her car broke down. Such things occur everyday, but certainly not on a main highway with a repair crew of three un-mechanical girls.

Players to Present 'The Show-Off'

Elizabeth Beall has won the title role of Clara in the College Player's next production "The Show-Off," scheduled for presentation Jan. 14, 15 and 16.

Betty Peck and Jeannie Tripp have the other lead roles. Robert Blaustone is directing the production.

Council Comments

By Carolyn Bridge

Long reports, no old business and little new business highlighted the student council meeting Tuesday.

Reports included Alan Leonard's treasury report from the end of the month, Ardith Munro's lengthy recitation on the Christmas formal and a report on yesterday's rally by Larry Keith.

Publicity Committee

Willie Sprague announced that the publicity committee was still working on posters for the Bill of Rights Week. Posters are also being made for "Christmas Interlude" and other up-coming campus activities.

Jose Cuervo brought up the building of the Santa Ana float for the Christmas parade to be held following the Thanksgiving football game.

Christmas Formal

New business included a motion from Miss Munro to the effect that the "Christmas Interlude" be held in the Pageant Room at the Wilton Hotel in Long Beach. The date of December 4 and the price of $3.00 per couple was included in the motion. The motion was carried.

Cuervo moved that $50 be taken from the equipment and furniture account in order to pay for the float which is being built by the sophomore class. The motion was passed.

Susan Larsen asked the board about student council pins for the representatives. Anna Lou Brewer reported where they could be picked up.

Victory Flag

A short discussion was held on the disappearance of the Santa Ana College victory flag. It was mentioned that a new flag could be made by some organization. It will be brought up in the next ICC meeting.

Hirsch to Speak At Grid Banquet

Former Los Angeles Ram football star Elroy Hirsch will be the featured speaker at the Santa Ana College Football Banquet to be held Tuesday night, Dec. 15 in the student union.

Highlight of the evening will be selection of the Don of the Year. Other awards will be Most Valuable Player, Most Improved Player, and Most Inspirational Player.

Five SAC Students At CJCSGA Meet

"Leadership Toward International Understanding" will be the theme to prevail over the California Junior College Student Government Assn. convention which began yesterday and will continue through tomorrow in Berkeley.

The Berkeley meeting, co-hosted by Contra Costa College, Diablo Valley College, Modesto J. C., and Stockton College, is being attended by representatives of the north, central, and south regions of the association.

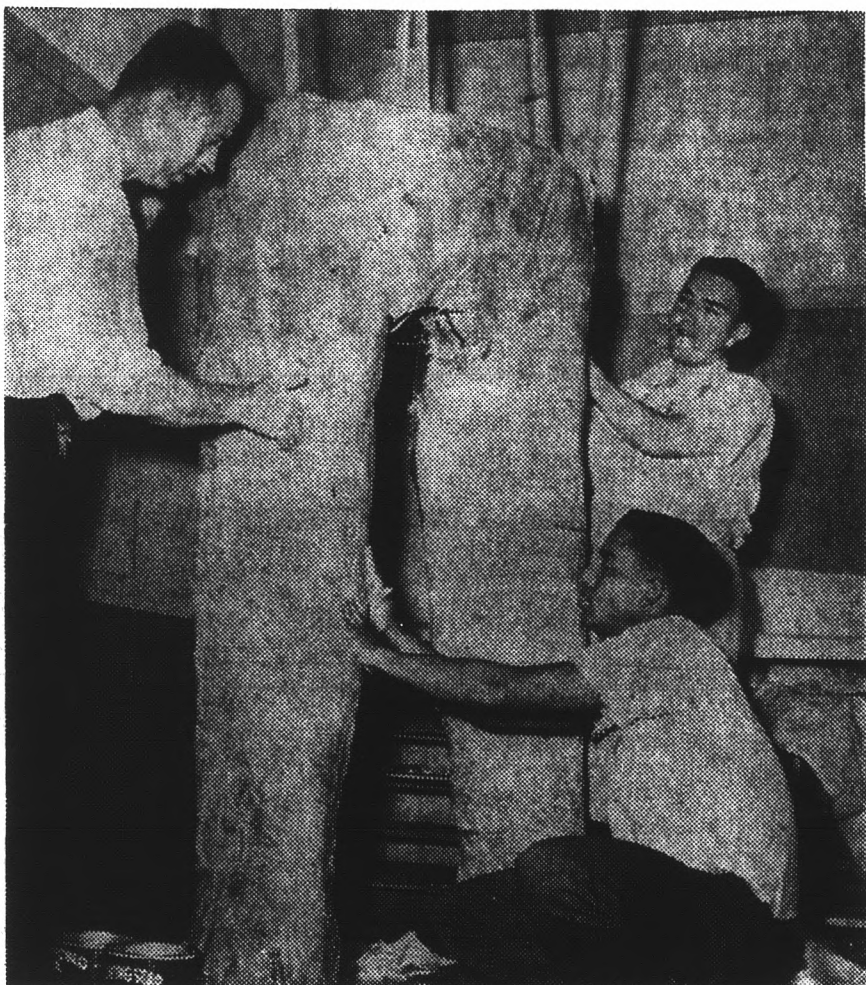

Representing the SAC government will be A. S. President, Bill Mott; Vice President, Joan Tammaro; Social Commissioner, Ardith Munro; Special Student Activities Commissioner, Jarrell Mauck; and Larry Keith, Commissioner of Assemblies and Rallies. Attending as advisers will be Deans Agness Todd Miller and Thomas Trawick.

Santa Ana Observes Thanksgiving Day

Santa Ana College will observe Thanksgiving holiday by closing Wednesday afternoon for a four day vacation.

Football will highlight Thanksgiving afternoon with the annual turkey game with Fullerton College.

The Santa Annual Frolic will follow that evening. School will reopen, Monday, November 30.

DON OF THE YEAR MAYBE? Cliff Hutter, Jose Cuervo and Mr. Peter Raven work on the 12 foot Don to be placed on Santa Ana College's float for the Santa Annual Frolic. Photo by Walters

El Don on SAC Float 'Bigger Than Kingsize'

Santa Ana College will be represented in the Santa Annual Frolic Parade, Thanksgiving evening, with a float and several cars carrying members of the SAC pep band.

The parade which will begin at 7:30, will travel south on Main Street and will officially open the Christmas season in Santa Ana.

Big Don

SAC's float will carry out the parade theme, "Christmas In The West" with rolling hills highlighted by a 12 foot Don standing in the midst of a green valley. The side of the float will bear the inscription, "Santa Ana College."

Plans are that the homecoming queen, Sue Shinkel, and her court will ride on the float.

Designing of the float was handled by sophomore class president, Jose Cuervo and art instructor, Mr. Peter Raven. Although this is a sophomore class project, several freshmen have volunteered their services in the actual construction.

"El Don," which will highlight the float, will be dressed in the traditional red and black depicting Santa Ana College. Present plans are to have his head moving from side to side.

All Purpose Don

Following the parade, "El Don" will be used for school rallies, assemblies and other purposes. He was constructed in three separate pieces in order to make transportation and storage easy. It is hoped that a speaker can be placed within the structure so that sometime in the near future, SAC will have a 'speaking' Don.

Float chairman, Cuervo, asks anyone who has a free hour to come by the art room and help with the building of "El Don."

Coed Service Clubs Hold Open House

Women's Service Clubs will hold open house on Monday evening, November 23, from 7-9 p.m.

The purpose of open house is to give the new women students a chance to meet the members of Las Meninas, Las Hidas and Las Gitanas and to decide which club they would like to join.

Open House will be held in three different locations this year but they are all in the same general area. This will make it possible for girls to attend all three meetings within the allotted two hours.

Las Gitanas

Las Gitanas will hold their rush party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John "Sky" Dunlap, 1617 N. Baker Street. Selection for membership in Las Gitanas (the Gypsies) is based upon willingness to serve and cooperate in all school and community activities.

The club is active in campus projects and has a long record of community service.

Las Hidas

Meeting place for Las Hidas will be at the home of Miss Ruth Bradley, 1519 N. Ross, Apt. D.

The purpose and ideals of Las Hidas center around the key word, "friendliness" and the promotion of friendliness among the women students of SAC.

Las Meninas

Las Meninas will meet at the home of Anna Lou Brewer, 2314 N. Baker Street.

The aim of each Las Meninas member is to be a well-rounded college coed in leadership, social and scholastic ability.

In order to promote greater friendship among women students in college, the club sponsors dances and activities of the college.

Club membership requirements include being in good standing, carrying 10½ units or more, and being a holder of a SAC student body card.

Bid Day

Following the open house girls will file their first, second and third preferences between the clubs. On Bid Day the girls will be notified as to which invitation they have received.

SAC Represented At AMS Meeting In Los Angeles

Traveling to Los Angeles City College last Saturday morning, six SAC delegates represented Santa Ana College at the Southern California Junior College Associated Men Students Conference.

Attending from SAC were Junior Stein, Larry Wentzle, Don Clucas, John Hedly, Bob Fenster, Don Bissonnette, AMS president, and William Corser, adviser for the group.

"This conference was terrifically organized and presented," said Don. "Many agreements and recommendations were discussed."

Various workshops were attended by the SAC delegates. Larry Wentzle attended the Service workshop; Don Clucas participated in Intramural; John Hedly visited Publicity; Bob Fenster took part in Finance; Junior Stein was active in the social workshop; and Don Bissonnette represented SAC in the president's workshop.

The next conference will be held at Orange Coast College.

Magazine Features Miss Norma Staman

Norma Staman, last year's second place winner in Santa Ana College's first annual car show, was pictured in the November 1959 issue of the "Ford Times."

The magazine, published monthly by the Ford Motor Company, showed Miss Staman in her roadster which she built herself.

The prize winning car consists of a '29 A body powered by a '56 Thunderbird engine with three carburetors, a '39 Ford transmission and a '48 Ford differential.

Don Cagers Eye Alumni Battle

Coach Bob Boyd continues to increase the pace in basketball practice as the opener with the Alumni next Friday draws closer for the defending Eastern Conference champions.

"We are not taking this game lightly," related Boyd "It counts on our season record and never before has an Alumni team been as loaded with talent as this group."

Spotlight on Sports

By Jerry Wilcox

Two Santa Ana College football players rate inside post positions in the running for All Eastern Conference honors.

Halfback Leroy Whittle and tackle Tom Dallape seem to be the top Don choices to make the EC all star team as the season rapidly draws to a close.

Don Pacer

Whittle, the flashy speedster from Berkeley High, has been the leading Don ground gainer all season but will get stiff competition from such established stars as Tom (Go Go) Gates from San Bernardino, Ron Fugino from Fullerton, and Weldon Rutledge from Riverside.

Meanwhile Dallape should make the first squad without any trouble at all. The former Mater Dei gridder, who has intercepted two passes this year at his tackle position, has been the anchor man in the Santa Ana offensive and defensive line.

Injured Fullback

Fullback Ron Johnson, who was right at the top of the scoring race until he cracked two ribs in the Riverside game, would also have been a leading candidate. Even without the injury, Johnson would have had his hands full trying to top power runners Henry Enriquez from Orange Coast and Bob Jackson from Riverside.

Another possible all conference prospect from Santa Ana is veteran center Ray Patscheck who made a tremendous come back after reporting late.

Soccer Squad Meets U. of Cal. Riverside

Tomorrow morning at 10:30 the University of California at Riverside comes to Don Field to meet the powerful Don soccer team which registered another impressive win last week.

With Ertuvan Kanatsiz leading the way Santa Ana added Pomona College to its growing list of four-year college victims with a 5-2 victory on Don Field last Saturday. Kanatsiz, founder of the game at Donville, scored first for the Dons and set a fast pace for his teammates to follow.

Kanatsiz ended the day with three goals.

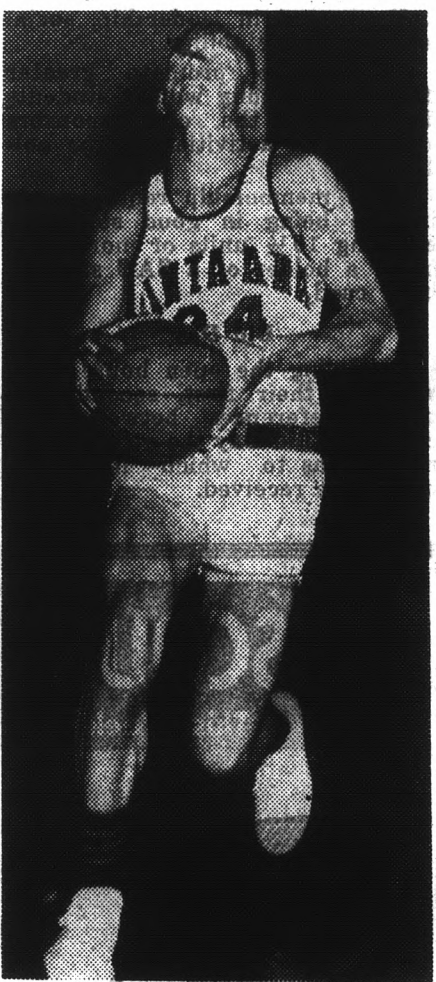

Farrier Issues Call For More Wrestlers

Wrestling coach George Farrier today put out an urgent call for all potential participants on this year's grappling team.

Two lettermen return to this year's squad, which hosts Riverside in the first Eastern Conference match Tuesday Dec. 1.

Three Weeks
After drilling the Dons for three weeks Boyd noted that Santa Ana may have a somewhat slower and less accurate shooting team from last years exceptional squad. He went on to say that size, hard work, desire, and even pride could carry the Dons a long way again this season.

As for his personnel Boyd singled out letterman Jon Brettman and last years mid-season transfer from USC, Don Livingston, as the best of the pack at this stage. He anticipates a good season for Phil Livesay. Lonnie Moore also drew raves for his performances in practice thus far. Moore, just out of the service, may be the playmaker the Dons need so badly.

Jon Brettman
... to lead Dons

Four Lettermen

With eleven tyros teaming with four lettermen it appears an uphill battle for the team that lost, 67-73, to Long Beach City College in the state finals last season.

Gridders Nip Mt. SAC In EC Thriller 22-21

By Jerry Wilcox
El Don Sports Editor
Santa Ana College broke its win, loss pattern jinx last night but the Dons sent 7000 Santa Ana

Bowl patrons away limp while doing it.
Coach Homer Beatty's men survived Fred Bernal's attempted field goal from the 34 with just 33 seconds left to nip the once mighty Mt. San Antonio Mounties 22-21, in the biggest thriller of the year.

It made little difference in the Eastern Conference race however as San Bernardino cinched at least a first place tie by beating Citrus 16-8.

Fast Tempo

The tempo of the fast moving game was set on the first kickoff when Ron Line returned it 60 yards to the Don 35. Eight plays later the Mounties had their first touchdown when Warren Hazard plunged into the end zone from the one. Bernal's kick made it 7-0.

But fabulous Leroy Whittle whose 140 yards passed Orange Coast's Hank Enriquez for the conference rushing lead, dashed 73 yards around right end to put the Dons back in business. Bill Mott's dive for the conversion gave the locals a one point lead with the game just five minutes old.

Mott's 43 yard toss to Gary Underwood and Whittle's subsequent conversion skyrocketed SAC to a 16-7 advantage at the quarter.

Threaten Rout

The Dons threatened to make a rout of it in the second period when Ron Johnson, recovered from his rib injury, scored from the four. Mt. SAC came right back however, with Ron Line plunging from the one and Larry Korsmeier throwing to Don Halte for the two-pointer.

The Mounties tallied in the fourth stanza on a 81 yard march in five plays with Jerry Collins hitting paydirt from the two but failed to convert as three Dons stopped Halte inches from the goal line.

Mr. SAC knocked on the Don door once more, using the TCU spread, but the game ended after Bernal's desperation boot was wide.

Santa Ana, which finishes the season next week against Fullerton on Thanksgiving, is now 4-2 in conference play. The Mounties are 3-3.

The Dons had the edge in statistics. They led in first downs, 18-14, and in rushing, 320-120, but Mt. SAC completed 10 of 21 passes for 139 while Santa Ana was seven of 16 for 123.

The win gave El Don a 7-7 tie in the series.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT DEFENSE. Santa Ana defensive backs Bill Mott (12), Gary Underwood (hidden), and Leroy Whittle knock ball away from intended receiver. Dons intercepted five in Chaffey game.

Don Harriers Win Conference Crown

With Dale Story breaking the Citrus course record by 24 seconds, Santa Ana College had the Eastern Conference cross country championship today after snatching the all EC Meet yesterday afternoon.

Story finished the 3.1 mile tour in 16 minutes flat, 75 yards ahead of his nearest rival, Mt. SAC's Paul Fisher, who had set the course mark of 16:24 just a week earlier.

John Ward's Dons had 37 points to Mt. SAC's 47. Orange

Coast was a distant third with 61. Other scores were Citrus, 110; Chaffey, 125; Fullerton, 153; and San Bernardino, 153.

Santa Ana's Max Cheney and Ernie Verdugo finished fourth and fifth respectively.

Baily of Citrus was third.

Whittle Climbs To Second Spot

On the strength of his 169 yards rushing total against Chaffey, Don halfback Leroy Whittle moved from the fifth spot among the Eastern Conference rushing leaders to second place behind Riverside's Bob Jackson. In total offense Whittle has 511 yards, fourth best in total offense.

Pass defense records show Santa Ana has grabbed off ten opponents' aeriels. Four Dons, end Ray Ponce, quarterback Jim Bralney, tackle Tom Dallape, and Whittle have picked off two apiece.
